

CSCI 211 Spring 2009
THREE-MINUTE QUESTIONNAIRE
Monday, 09-02-23

This three-minute questionnaire is anonymous.

What am I doing right in this course?

1. Explaining and demonstrating course material.
2. Making detailed notes in class and posting them on the web page.
3. Grading the HW and tests promptly.
4. Giving multiple examples of problems and different cases.
5. Providing information that allows us to complete our homework.
6. Bring excitement. Explained circuit in detail.
7. Teaching.

What am I doing wrong?

1. When we are let out late, people don't listen near the end of class.
2. Not fully understanding what you are doing.
3. Spending too much time on trivial details.
4. Needed more detail for Boolean algebra rules.
5. Nothing really.

What could I do better?

1. Move quicker with the objectives of the class.
2. Write and understand everything.
3. More examples.
4. Speak slower. More detail on important subjects.
5. I think everything so far has been fine.

Note: one student answered with comments about his performance in the class, rather than the instructor's performance.