

Quiz 2
CSCE 204 – Fall 2009
Thursday, September 3

NAME:

1. How do you add a control onto a form?
  - a. Drag the control from the toolbox into the form window.
  - b. Place your mouse in the form and type the control name.
  - c. Double click the text property in the Properties Window.
  - d. Click the Common Controls tab in the toolbox window, and then double click on the control icon.

2. A Boolean property:
  - a. Sets the variables for the application
  - b. Is made of many other letters and numbers
  - c. Changes the font size
  - d. Can only hold two values

3. What object is used to identify the current form?
  - a. Name
  - b. Display
  - c. Me
  - d. Sub

4. To change the text colors, what property is used?
  - a. Font
  - b. Text
  - c. Align
  - d. ForeColor

5. You are writing a program to compute carpet size. Instead of multiplying the length by the width, you add the two numbers instead. This is an example of:
  - a. A syntax error
  - b. A run-time error
  - c. A logical error
  - d. All of the above